LOCATION

1500 Broadway Bowtie Spectacular:

- The two sided nature of the screen increases the overall lines of sight for maximum exposure.
- Is strategically positioned 5 stories above the intersection of West 43rd St, and Broadway, the pedestrian walkway in the heart of the Bowtie
- Is located just north of the Times Square - 42nd Street subway station, the busiest station in the country.

Pedestrian Promenade

Don't get lost in the mix. The one thing our clients love most is having a stand alone screen, not touching, or too close to any other. This has been known to elevate the prestige of the property, and effectively lessen our neighbors competing for the same attention.
